

12 Days of Responsibility

At Fly Five, our wish is for you to be a responsible community member who knows how to look out for the well-being of others. Over the next 12 days, challenge yourself to accomplish each prompt below. Be sure to cross each task off as you go!

Be a responsible partner or group member during math.

Take care of shared equipment at recess.

Apologize for a mistake that hurt someone's feelings.

Treat your classmates with fairness.

Return materials to their proper place after using them.

Stand up for someone if they are being treated unfairly.

Handle materials with care.

Help to keep community spaces clean.

Look out for the well-being of others.

Honor your responsibilities.

Take responsibility for your actions.

Follow the rules of the space you are in.
