

Establishing Discussion Norms

Body Language and Eye Contact

Be mindful of body language and maintain eye contact during class discussions to show confidence, respect, and engagement.

Communicate Clearly

Speak clearly and at a volume in which your classmates are able to hear you easily.

Share the Air

Take turns when participating. Welcome all voices during class discussions.

Active Listening

Show interest in what the speaker is sharing. This can be done with attentive body language and eye contact.

Be Open to New Ideas

Model and encourage openness to thoughts and opinions that are different from your own.
