Civic Responsibility and Me

Directions: November 5th is Election Day! Voting is just one way we can display civic responsibility as citizens. Civic responsibility is an important part of contributing to your community and the well-being of others. Answer the writing prompts below and give an example of why this belief or opinion is meaningful to you.

“I feel connected to my community and give back by...”

“Think of a time when taking a vote has helped. What do you vote on with your friends? With your family?”

“Being a leader means...”
