Embedding Fly Five Vocabulary in your Morning Message!

Parts of the Morning Message:

- Greeting
- Date and Day of the Week
- A Focused and Interactive Task
- News, Reminders, and Directions
- Closing

Example:

Tuesday, November 4, 2024

Good Morning Persistent Fourth Graders!

Yesterday we began our long division unit in math. It is important to recognize that when learning something new we're bound to make mistakes and missteps! Failure is nothing to be self-conscious about. Think about ways that you can be open to new learning!

We will have visitors from the science center today. Remember how we talked about welcoming them.

Your teachers,
Miss A and Mr B

Be thinking about where you can weave in your recently learned Fly Five vocabulary.
